

Patrick Brault, Professional Artist in Figure Skating

Patrick Brault was the 1992 Olympic and World Team alternate for Canada, a seven-time International Competitor, 1987 Junior Men's Silver Medalist, and the 1984 Novice Men U.S. National Champion. Because of his dual citizenship, Patrick has competed for both the U.S. and Canada.

He has 11 years of professional experience performing as a principal skater in a variety of shows including Dorothy Hamill's Ice Capades, "Grease On Ice", Royal Caribbean's Voyager and Navigator of the Seas and the Kennedy Center's "Next Ice Age".

"In my years as an ice skater, I have bestowed in myself the ability to communicate my love of performance art to all ages. I believe that ice skating performances have the unique ability to give the audience a feeling of ethereal art." – Patrick Brault
